Art and Artist Information

About the Art:

Name of piece: A Salutation to the Dawn

Medium used: Embroidery on a painted canvas

When it was completed: 09/02/2020

How does this capture the essence of our collective home: South Rosebank?

This painting is an appreciation for how close we live to the water and our accessible beaches. It is a reminder to all that it is our duty to protect our green (or blue) spaces and their beauty is for all to enjoy.

About the Artist:

Full name: Mary Ellen Fraser

Pre-teen Teen Adult

How did you develop your artistic talents?

When I was younger I would paint and scrapbook with my grandma and other family. It has always been a special activity we do together
